

Yes! We have a Utility called the Planning Management Utility designed specifically for this!

Here's a screenshot of what the utility looks like with the Minimum Stock Quantity in column L. Once filled in, it's just a matter of hitting "Send to Orchestrated" at the top and it's uploaded to your database!

This shows finished goods but the data that pulls on this page will be EVERY item in your database, so it's just a matter of scrolling down/filtering to find what you'd like. For more information, check out our support page on the Utility as well (it does more than just update items, but it's primarily designed to focus on MRP related things):
